An unbeatable combination for pleasure and learning. --Childrens Book Review Service The illustrations and the vocabulary will delight small eyes and ears. --School Library Journal Q and A - Ruth Heller - A Paperstar Profile Ruth Heller - Profile How did you become interested in writing books for children I loved reading to my own children, and when they started school, I became the P. T. A. library chairman. I was the one who got to pick and choose and spend a nice fat budget for the elementary school library. I feel as though I've been surrounded by childrens books for years. I suppose this and my strong art background are what prompted my trying to write. What is the biggest influence in your style of writing, and how has it changed since you first began Hillaire Belloc, Gilbert and Sullivan, Edward Lear I grew up reading all of them. I love their rhythm, and I loved reading Dr. Seuss to my children. No question, these were my influences. I think I've become wordier, not quite as minimal and succinct as I used to...
