This story for readers of ages 4 to 6 is about The Brave Little Spider that originated quite by accident when one morning I went in the garden to water my vegetables. While opening the water facet I noticed a very small spider that had spun a web attached between a wild flower and the water pipe. I was immediately fascinated by how such a small creature was able to spin so fast and in a very short time the web was completed. The spider then seemed to place himself comfortably in the middle of the web and wait for smaller insects to get caught in his silken trap. I also thought how similar his plan of action was to when humans go fishing. By late evening I had returned to water my vegetables and noticed that the little spider was still waiting inside his web. Only by now I was able to see that the catch of the day were several mosquitoes and many small gnats. The little spider had also individually wrapped them for safe keeping and no doubt to be eaten later when he felt hungry. It was then when I suddenly thought, What if a great big giant comes in my garden and this little spider is the only one who can save my vegetable from being eaten? .What will he do? Fortunately, I soon concluded that my, Brave Little Spider, would do the only sensible thing. Spin the strongest and largest web and save my vegetable garden from the great big giant! Thus the Brave Little Spider in my story saved the forest where he...
