Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.George Washington presided over the Constitutional Convention, during which time the Constitution was approved and adopted at the State house in Philadelphia on September 17, 1787. Only he, a moral, honorable and dignified man -- through personal example, committed leadership and force of character -- could hold the strong-willed, opinion-differing men together at the glorious Constitutional Convention. The destiny of a great nation lay upon the shoulders of this heroic leader. Soon after he wrote de Lafayette that It (the Constitution) appears to me, then, little short of a miracle. Inducted by Life Magazine in 1998 into its Hall of Heroes, these words most appropriately written by historian Garry Wills: Washington is the greatest President, greatest leader, greatest politician. He steered a course through revolution and nation-building with immense tact and wisdom. Nobody else could have done it. He was equal to the task. This man was the personification of the uppermost inherent worth of Western man. He was a man of understanding, judgment, and devotion to and faith in God. He was a soldier of physical strength, uprightness, and moral fiber beyond reproach. He was a Christian patriot with a sense of destiny and great courage. He was willing to fight and die for a just cause, his cause. George Washington is an American hero whose eminence is not fully covered by the record of his life. The man was substantially greater than anything he did. He was a military genius, a mastermind. He wrenched freedom, independence and liberty from oppression; He was an outstanding statesman. He helped evolve a secure government from political turmoil; He was a patriot. He refused a crown. Wisdom and understanding, persistence,...
