E. fraternity. It is too early to speak of any collegiate honors our men may get, as that will be determined nearer the close of college. In the election of officers in the cadet battalion, we obtained only one, Bro. Sanford having been appointed to fill the position of first sergeant of Company A, which is the highest office the Junior class affords. We have organized a tennis club and have a complete outfit in that line, having three fine courts. We have elected our honorary body officers, and although the weather has not permitted it for some time past, we will soon commence practicing regularly, and expect confidently to win laurels in any coming contests, as we have some very fine players. Chapters having letters in this issue. We are glad to say that nearly every...
