The Senator is willing to agree to any reciprocity agreement, however much the farmer is hurt, provided the manufacturer is also crippled. The Senator always was a specious reasoner.--Enid (Okla.) Events. Predigested Tariff Tinkering. In the New York World s report of the Taft reciprocity speech at Chicago last Saturday night we find the following: One of the hits in the President s opening remarks at Orchestra Hall was a frank explanation of why the treaty had come to Congress as a completed document by the State Department, in the words of its critics, instead of being framed after consultation with members of the House or Senate. Had there been such a series of conferences, Mr. Taft started, the treaty s draft would have been the target for suggestions and objections such as are showered upon a Tariff bill, into which each Federal lawmaker attempts to inject some feature of benefit to his particular district. All this log rolling, the President noted, had been eliminated by presenting the treaty in predigested form. There was a combination of laughter and applause as the speaker told this why and how of the treaty s early history. The adjective predigested is a familiar one in connection with breakfast foods, but this is the first time, we believe, that it has ever been applied to...
